

I'm concerned about the possibility the FCC might implement a proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. I appreciate being able to spend quiet evenings with my family. Calls routinely came over the dinner hour and even if we ignored them they were still in the background of our conversation. Please do not change this protection. Thanks.